SAVAGE ATTACKS

Non-Union Workers Brutally Assaulted at Chicago Stockyards.

YOUNG WOMEN BEATEN

Dragged From Streetcars Girls Are Subjected to Brutal Treatment by Strike Sympathizers.

Police Are Called but Have Difficulty in Handling the Infuriated Rioters.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Savage attacks were made upon non-union workers at the stockyards last night, and in the fights that followed eight persons were injured, four of them so severely that it was necessary to take them to hospitals. At Halstead and Root streets two young women, Annie Cook and Mamie Jasper, were dragged from a streetcar, pounded over the head, knocked down and badly beaten before the police arrived. Miss Cook was severely cut in the face, her shoulder was injured, and she was taken to the hospital. Miss Jasper was struck with a brick, and her face and forehead were badly cut. It was found necessary to take her also to the hospital.

Three policemen rescued the women from the mob, but it refused to disperse, and continued to throw stones. A westbound car which happened to pass during the trouble was struck by several of the missiles, and two of the passengers were struck. One woman was hit in the mouth with a brick and all her front teeth were knocked out.

Anton Ashtura, a driver for a brewery, tried to drive through the crowd and was hit in the back of the head with a brick and knocked from his wagon. His scalp was badly cut.

A call for help had been sent in and officers soon arrived, whereupon the crowd soon scattered. Ten minutes after the officers returned to the station they were called out to suppress a second riot in which seven colored men employed in the stockyards were attacked by a large crowd of strike sympathizers. Policemen went to the assistance of the colored men and made a strong fight against the crowd. One of the negroes was chased into an alley, where he was knocked down, kicked and badly bruised. A number of the crowd were hurt by stones.

ANTI-SEMITIC RIOTS

Town in Russia Poland Was Badly Stirred Up.

Kattowitz, Prussian Silesia, Sept. 13.—Anti-Jewish disturbances occurred Sunday at the frontier town of Sosnowice, Russian Poland, on the occasion of the celebration of the Jewish New Year. Boys stoned the celebrationists and injured a child, with the result that a rumor spread that the Jews had killed a child. A number of women marched in procession through the streets in the evening, stoning the windows of Jewish houses and those of the synagogue. Several Jews were injured with knives and stones. The doctors refused to attend them, fearing the mob. The rioters also broke into several Jewish dwellings. The of the garrison commandant unseparated the rioters and arrested ten of them.

Sulicide of Artist's Model.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—The body of a young woman found floating in Lake Michigan near the clubhouse of the Chicago Yacht club, has been identified as that of Maud Wolcott, an artist's model who came to this city from Minnesota some months ago. Letters and papers found in her trunk lead the police to believe that she grew weary of the uncertainty of her means of earning a livelihood, and took her life by throwing herself into the lake.

Neighbors Defy the Law.

Cordoba, Ga., Sept. 12.—A party of about fifty friends are standing guard with loaded Winchester around a house in Baxter, Baker county, Fla., in which are Charles Altman and Hillary Altman, two men accused of killing a negro and a white man on an excursion train near that place. These friends of the Altmans say that the sheriff or military will take the men over dead bodies.

Excursion Train Tragedy.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 12.—During a row on an excursion train on the Georgia Southern & Florida railway between white men, Jackson Duncan was killed and his brother, Marshall Duncan, was dangerously wounded. Jim Riley, a negro, was killed by a stray bullet, he not being mixed in the row.

Deadly Tenement Blaze.

New York, Sept. 12.—Four persons were burned to death and six were injured in a fire which destroyed the three upper floors of a five-story tenement at 68-70 First street early today. Three of the victims were men and the fourth a woman. All were found suffocated on the upper floors.

Big Barns Overtaxed.

St. Louis, Sept. 13.—The thirty-two barns on the livestock grounds are overtaxed by the 2,400 entries for the World's Fair cattle show, which will continue until Sept. 24.

RUMORS PREVAIL

In Absence of News St. Petersburg Is Content With Conjectures.

INTERESTING IF TRUE

The Rumor That Alexieff Has Resigned and Kuropatkin Superseded Repeated.

Indications Now Point to the Possibility That Belligerents Will Enter on Winter Campaign.

The sanguinary side of the Russo-Japanese conflict is not now in evidence, and with the practical suspension of news from the front the interest for the time being centers in rumors—that Viceroy Alexieff has resigned, as reported Sunday; that General Kuropatkin is to be replaced by Lieutenant General Linevitch, now in command of the forces at Vladivostok, and other statements which cannot be traced to authentic sources, but all of which, if true, would have a most important bearing on the situation.

One Russian correspondent points out that when the Japanese withdraw from the Russian front it is usually the precursor of their appearance on the flanks, and he thinks the indications point to a winter campaign. Interest again turns to Port Arthur and to the effect which the Russian defeat at Liao Yang is likely to have on the garrison there, and the feeling is expressed that the siege will soon end in disaster for Russian arms.

RUMOR MONGERS

Are Having Their Field Day at St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 12.—With the lull in military operations and an almost entire suspension of dispatches from the front, St. Petersburg has again fallen back upon the rumors. Countless stories are afloat regarding the Russian defeat at Liao Yang, some of which are absolutely absurd while others have apparently enough basis in fact to give them a color of possibility.

Of first importance is the revival of the rumor of Viceroy Alexieff's resignation, based probably upon differences said to exist between him and General Kuropatkin and others in authority in the far East. Of next importance is the rumor that General Kuropatkin is to be superseded, Lieutenant General Linevitch being named as the most probable successor. This is supposed to rest upon the emperor's displeasure with Kuropatkin's generalship at Liao Yang and general dissatisfaction with the course of events at the front.

Neither Alexieff's nor Kuropatkin's friends seem to attach great importance to the stories involving them.

LIAO YANG LOOTED

Ancient City Given Over to Three Depredating Armies.

Liao Yang, Sept. 8, via Tientsin, 13.—The looting of Liao Yang has few parallels in the annals of warfare. Three armies on three different days had possession of the city and engaged in acts of depredation.

When the Russians entered into the occupation of Liao Yang they built a model Chinese city outside the old walled Chinese town, and thousands of troops were lodged within its gates. When the Japanese drove the Russians out of Shanshan hills the Russian soldiers realized that the town must fall and forgot all discipline. They looted the town, sparing neither Chinese nor European shops, destroying what they could not carry away. They wantonly destroyed great quantities of foodstuffs and other goods, ripping open bales, bags and boxes with the ever-ready bayonet and scattering their contents over the streets. Much liquor was found, and the soldiers, becoming drunk, committed further excesses.

During the interim of the departure of the Russians and the arrival of the Japanese the Chinese soldiers and police finished the work the Russians began, pillaging the shops that were not found by the Russians. Then when the Japanese came they completed the looting. They had been fighting for five days without food except dry rice, and broke loose upon entering the town. The Japanese looted right and left.

The shops had already suffered and the Japanese turned their attention to the private houses. They wanted food, but overlooked nothing. This was the first time in this war that the Japanese were guilty of looting a captured city, and their officers were much disturbed by the outbreak. When order was restored the Japanese soldiers were taken out of the walled city and now are not allowed inside without a special pass. The Russians burned great quantities of supplies. Food in the Chinese city is very scarce.

Many Non-Combatants Slain.

Tokio, Sept. 13.—A telegram received here from Field Marshal Oyama at midnight gives the disposition of the Russian troops in the vicinity of Yantai and Mukden. Another report received from the headquarters of the Manchurian armies tells of the pitiable condition of non-combatants in Liao Yang. It relates that while the Russians were holding the defense works close to the walls of Liao Yang they prohibited the removal of non-combatants from the city, and consequently many were killed or wounded.

SUBJECT OF PROTEST

Japan Objects to Russian Cruiser in Our Waters.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The expected protest of Japan against allowing the Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena, which arrived at San Francisco Sunday, to remain longer than twenty-four hours, has come. The Japanese consul in that city, through the collector of customs, made formal demand that the vessel be required to leave at the end of that time.

The collector's telegram officially notifying the authorities of the arrival of the Lena and of Japan's protest, was addressed to the secretary of the treasury. The telegram reads as follows: "Japanese consul has made demand upon me that Russian auxiliary cruiser Lena, arriving at this port on 11th inst., leave within twenty-four hours. The captain reports that he has entered for repairs of engines and boilers, principally the latter. I am requesting the inspector of hulls and boilers to make an examination of vessel's machinery with the consent of the Russian consul and the commander of the Lena."

Acting Secretary Murray sent the following dispatch to the collector: "Wire this department hour of steamer's arrival at your port and concise resume of steamer's inspection's report, and if repairs are necessary the probable time required to complete them. On receipt of particulars the department will instruct you further." There was a good deal of reticence on the subject on the part of the officials of the department of commerce and the bureau of navigation, who preferred to await the report of the steamboat inspector before making any statement.

No Inspection Made.

San Francisco, Sept. 13.—No representative of the United States has yet boarded the converted cruiser Lena for the purpose of substantiating the claims of Captain A. T. Berlinsky that the warship put into this port solely for the reason that her boilers were in such condition as to render her absolutely unseaworthy. The Russian warship has now remained in port long over the twenty-four hour limit, and prominent members of the local Russian and Japanese colonies are evincing great interest in what they are prone to designate a serious complication.

Woman Held for Murder.

Cincinnati, Sept. 13.—Lee I. Jeffries is dead from wounds sustained when he was shot last week by Mrs. Gertrude Langley, who is now held for murder in the first degree. On account of their infatuation for each other, Jeffries deserted his wife and children and Mrs. Langley deserted her husband. After a time Jeffries and his wife became reconciled. Meeting Jeffries on the street, Mrs. Langley charged that he had broken up her home, and shot him.

Drove Negroes Out.

Carlsile, Ind., Sept. 13.—Jasper Hammond, colored, while resisting arrest yesterday afternoon, was shot and seriously wounded by Constable T. E. Johnson. Hammond was trying to renew a quarrel with other negroes. Last night a mob gathered and drove all the non-resident negroes out of town. Race feeling is intense and it is feared that negroes having homes here will be compelled to leave. Hammond was taken to the Sullivan jail for safekeeping.

Chicago Merchant Murdered.

Chicago, Sept. 13.—Henry Peterson, a tobacco dealer at Lake and Robey streets, was murdered last night by one of two men who entered his place with the intention of robbing him. The men entered the store when Peterson was alone and demanded that he open the money drawer. He refused to do it and one of the men shot him. The men then robbed the place of about $300 and made their escape. Peterson died in a few minutes after being shot.

Ready to Go Into Commission.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The new battleship Ohio has been delivered to Captain L. C. Logan as the representative of the government, preliminary to being placed in commission.

BEING WIPED OUT

Former Powerful Negro Colony Has Lost Its One Time Force.

THE VICTIMS OF DISEASE

Tuberculosis Has Left Its Stamp in Most of the Homes in the Settlement.

Calvin Township at One Time Had Not a White Officer in Its Borders.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 13.—The old negro colony which made Calvin township, Cass county, just north of here in Michigan, famous in years gone by because there was not a white officer in the township, the negroes filling every office within the gift of the Calvin people, is fast disappearing, and the effect is noticeable in the population of Cass county. Within the last four years Cass county has lost more than 800 people from its rural settlements, and the greatest falling off has been in Calvin township, where tuberculosis has left its stamp in many a wealthy colored home, as well as in the humble ones. Within two decades it is estimated the colored settlement will be wiped out, either by amalgamation or emigration.

LITIGATION LIKELY TO FOLLOW

Bondsmen Will Insist on Investigation Conducted by Themselves.

Brazil, Ind., Sept. 13.—The probabilities are that the recent investigation of the books of the retiring city treasurer, which showed a shortage of about $3,000, will result in stubborn litigation between the bondsmen for Mr. Cutshall and the city. It is now conceded by the city that the apparent shortage is little less than $1,200, instead of $3,000; however, it is believed that the feeling aroused will result in the city's ordering an investigation of Mr. Cutshall's books covering his entire term of eight years. The recent investigation only went back three years.

The bondsmen will refuse to pay the alleged shortage until expert accountants employed by them make an investigation, as they intimate that spite-work is behind the inquiry already made.

Patrolman Shot in Self-Defense.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 13.—Patrolman Jerry Crow shot and fatally wounded Cleveland Dennison, a well-known character. Dennison while intoxicated visited a resort and caused a disturbance, and Patrolman Crow was summoned. Dennison resisted arrest, in which he was assisted by his companions, and Crow was knocked down. One of the assailants used a knife, stabbing Crow in the neck and inflicting a painful injury. The patrolman then brought his revolver into play, shooting Dennison three times, once in the neck, again in the breast, while the third bullet struck him in the arm. The wound in the breast is near the heart, and Dennison is expected to die.

Pathetic Case of Captain Pierce.

Kokomo, Ind., Sept. 13.—Captain W. W. Pierce, an army officer who served with distinction in the civil war, and who until a few years ago was a man of wealth and wide influence in this county, was found dying in a small room in a cheap lodging-house. He lost his property several years ago, and his family deserted him. Old-time friends had him removed to the hospital.

Deadly Saloon Brawl.

Muncie, Ind., Sept. 13.—William Powers, in charge of the abandoned factories of the American Window Glass company here, was perhaps fatally stabbed by William Dorman, an iron worker, after a quarrel in a saloon, and while Dorman was drunk. Dorman was arrested an hour later on charge of assault with intent to kill. Powers' condition is critical.

Young Woman Killed by Train.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 13.—Miss Jennie Hall, twenty-two years old, was killed by a Toledo, St. Louis & Western passenger train, in the outskirts of this city. She was walking on the track when the train rounded the corner and struck her before she realized it was coming. She was instantly killed.

Cambridge City, Ind., Sept. 13.—Curtis Harris of this city was found dead on the public highway two miles northeast of here, with a bullet hole in his breast and a revolver near by. Harris was only twenty-five years old. The circumstances point to suicide.

THE BANNER EVENT

National League of Republican Clubs to Meet in Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Sept. 13.—Arrangements are now being perfected for the convention of the National League of Republican clubs here Oct. 5 and 6. It is intended that it shall be one of the big events of the campaign in the central states and the banner event of the Republicans in Indiana. J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, president, and other national officers are here looking after the details of the program. The officers of the Indiana Lincoln League will co-operate with them. President Moore predicts that there will be an attendance of 1,000 delegates. Senator Beveridge and Secretary Shaw will speak the first night and Secretary Taft and Senator Fairbanks the second night. That is the program, although the arrangements made for Senator Fairbanks by the national committee may prevent him from attending. The efforts of the league are now directed toward organizing hundreds of clubs for the purpose of interesting and holding the first voters in line.

A Democratic leader who is very high in the party councils hinted to your correspondent today that before long William F. Sheehan, chairman of the executive committee of the national committee, about whom there has been so much said since the Parker boom started, will make a trip to Indiana for the purpose of getting in touch with the political situation and to see just how much money the party needs to carry the state. He said that if Sheehan does not come himself he will send his personal representative, who will have authority to act for him. While the prospect of Sheehan's appearance with a barrel of coin is alone very alluring to the politicians, his presence would be interesting because of the talk of lack of harmony between him and Belmont.

However, the politician who gave the tip that he is coming to Indiana also declared very positively that there is no friction between Taggart and Sheehan and that the latter holds Taggart in very high regard. Taggart, he declared, is working night and day at New York, and his associates fear he will overtax his constitution.

The managers of the Republican campaign don't believe that J. Frank Hanly, candidate for governor, was correctly quoted at his meeting in Boonville Saturday night when it is said that he paid a glowing compliment to Congressman Hemenway and predicted his election to the senate to succeed Mr. Fairbanks. It would have been quite natural for Hanly to eulogize Hemenway for two reasons. Boonville is Hemenway's home, and in complimenting him Hanly was paying a compliment to his audience. And then Hemenway and Hanly have been very close friends for a long time. When Hanly was in congress they were chums at Washington. However, the Republican leaders are not ready to jump to the conclusion that Hanly has gone so far as to openly boost any candidate for the senate. On the contrary, they are confident that he is keeping hands off. It is said that some of the friends of the prospective candidates for the senate are angry, but Hanly's friends say that, if they invest igate they will not be violated by proprieties.

Senator Fairbanks will probably not return to Indianapolis until the last week of the campaign. At his office it was stated today that the national committee has arranged a speaking tour that does not end until Oct. 12, and it is probable that by that time it will have his itinerary complete till election day. No promises have been made as to when he will be assigned to Indiana, but it is thought that he may be reserved for the last week. His Western tour from Chicago to St. Paul and from there through the Dakotas, Montana, Washington and California and return through Nevada, Utah, Colorado and Nebraska is one of the longest ever planned for a candidate. He will be active in the Eastern states till the 20th of this month, when he starts west.

Merely a Personal Call.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 13.—Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, Republican candidate for vice president, was a guest last night of President Theodore Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill. Senator Fairbanks said his visit to the president was of personal rather than of public interest. He left here early this morning for Saratoga to attend the Republican state convention. He will address the convention on Wednesday.

Fairbanks Helps It Along.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 13.—Senator Fairbanks has given a large contribution to the Marcus A. Hanna Memorial Chair association. The promoters of the project state that the fund of $100,000 which they seek to raise is growing in a satisfactory manner, and they are confident that the entire sum will be in hand in a comparatively brief period of time.

New Albany Entertaining the Methodist Ministers This Week.

The Indiana M. E. Conference will meet in New Albany this evening and continue in session all week. There are 265 ministers in the conference, besides a number of Supernumary and Superannuated men. This is the fifth conference in size in the Methodist church. It embraces all of the state South of the National Road. There are eight pre-riding elder districts. The appointment of this large number of men is done by the presiding Bishop, assisted by the advice of the eight presiding elders, who are called the "Cabinet." The conference will be in session until next Tuesday, the last item of business being the reading of the appointments of the ministers. Rev. J. M. Baxter of this district has one more year to serve as presiding elder—the limit of time on any one District being six years. Dr. Sargent who has so faithfully served this church during the past year will no doubt be returned for another year. The following resolutions signed by W. E. Shields, secretary, were unanimously adopted by the Official Board of the First M. E. church last night. Be it resolved that we most earnestly request the Bishop and his cabinet to return Rev. J. M. Baxter our beloved and successful presiding elder for another year, and also we most respectfully ask that our faithful pastor Rev. J. A. Sargent be returned for another year.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Huber celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home near Freetown a few days ago. It proved a very pleasant social event and was enjoyed by many of their friends and neighbors. Appropriate services were conducted by Rev. Baumgart, of Waymansville. A bountiful dinner was served, a long table being spread in the front yard where it was surrounded by flowers. There were decorations of golden rod, yellow bunting and Japanese lanterns. About 100 guests partook of the dinner. They were present from Indianapolis, Columbus, Seymour, Cortland including many neighbors and friends. Letters were read from several who could not be present. Mr. and Mrs. Huber received numerous presents. Mr. and Mrs. Huber are both natives of Germany and both were born in 1834. He came to this country when he was four years old and she came when she was thirteen. They were married at Londonville, Ohio, Sept. 7, 1854, and came to their present home thirty-six years ago. They reared a family of eleven children, four of whom are dead. Mr. and Mrs. Huber are held in high esteem by a host of warm friends.

GET THE HABIT

Of Saving While Young and it will Be Easier When You Are Old.

The man who never saves anything in his youth, will find it hard to do when he is older. There are boys in Seymour who have saved from one hundred to five hundred dollars by the time they were through school, and with this snug sum were able to begin their college course, or invest in some business which gave them a start in a successful career. They formed the saving habit by taking stock in the Cooperative Building and Loan Association and each week laid away 25 cents or more until this money with its accumulations matured a sum which gave them a good start.

How can the association do this? Simply this; the money received each week from the hundreds of members is loaned at once on mortgage security and the interest, less the small expense of handling the business, is distributed proportionally among the shareholders every three months by credits on the stock. The plan makes the stock mature in about six years, when each share with its 25-cent weekly payment amounts to one hundred dollars. Do you want to buy a home? Do you want to save a little money for a rainy day? Do you want some ready money for some business opening? You can save it through the Cooperative Building and Loan Association more easily than any other way. Try some stock in the new series G, which starts Monday, Oct. 3. Get the full particulars from W. F. Peter, Secretary.

Fibroid Tumors Cured.

A distressing case of Fibroid Tumor, which baffled the skill of Boston doctors. Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, Mass., in the following letter tells how she was cured, after everything else failed, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hayes' First Letter Appealing to Mrs. Pinkham for Help:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under Boston doctors' treatment for a long time without any relief. They tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing-down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time. "The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor given in your little book accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Note the result of Mrs. Pinkham's advice—although she advised Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, to take her medicine—which she knew would help her—her letter contained a mass of additional instructions as to treatment, all of which helped to bring about the happy result.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you describing my symptoms and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully, and to-day I am a well woman.

"The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound entirely expelled the tumor and strengthened my whole system. I can walk miles now.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female trouble of any kind to give it a faithful trial."—(Signed) Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St., (Roxbury) Boston, Mass.

Mountains of gold could not purchase such testimony—or take the place of the health and happiness which Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought to Mrs. Hayes.

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women; all ovarian troubles; tumors; inflammations; ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb; backache; irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation. Surely the volume and character of the testimonial letters we are daily printing in the newspapers can leave no room for doubt.

Mrs. Hayes at her above address will gladly answer any letters which sick women may write for fuller information about her illness. Her gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so genuine and heartfelt that she thinks no trouble is too great for her to take in return for her health and happiness.

Truly it is said that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing so many women, and no other medicine; don't forget this when some druggist wants to sell you something else.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonial, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

APPEALS TO YOUTH

Eloquent Peroration of Mr. Hanly's Greencastle Speech.

YOUNG MEN AND REPUBLICANISM

Are Inevitably in Sympathy One With Another.—The History of the Republican Party During Its Forty Years of Supremacy in National Affairs Has Been the Record of the Achievements of the American People.

One of the strongest presentations of Republican principles ever heard in Indiana was the speech of the Hon. J. Frank Hanly, Republican candidate for governor of Indiana, in opening the campaign at Greencastle on August 27th. In closing Mr. Hanly said:

The achievements of the Republican party during the fifty years of its existence and the forty years of its power, are the achievements of the American people. The record of the one is the history of the other. The two are inseparable. The hopes, the aspirations, the thoughts and the purposes of the American people have found expression and realization for half a century only through the declarations and acts of the Republican party. For forty years it has had the people's power of attorney. Acting under that high authority it has written statutes, rendered judicial decrees, solemnized treaties and made amendments to the constitution itself. These statutes, decrees, treaties and amendments constitute the political and civil history of the republic for the time they cover. In them can be traced, year after year and decade after decade, the growth, the development and the progress of the country, and in them the basic causes of the prosperity, the peace, the happiness and the ever increasing power of this proud people can be found.

Since the War With Spain.

The record of the party for the last seven years is in keeping with its history in the past. In that time the war with Spain has been fought to a victorious conclusion, ending in a treaty of peace and the restoration of amicable relations. The Cuban republic has been established. Civil government in Porto Rico, in Hawaii and in Alaska has been organized and is in successful operation. In the Philippines civil government has been established and is now being administered in exact accord with the thought and purpose of William McKinley, as stated in his second letter of acceptance:

"It is our purpose to establish in the Philippines a government suitable to the wants and conditions of the inhabitants and to prepare them for self-government, and to give them self-government when they are ready for it, and as rapidly as they are ready for it."

That purpose and how well and faithfully we are executing it is pointedly expressed in President Roosevelt's speech of acceptance:

"We have established in the islands a government by Americans assisted by Filipinos. We are steadily striving to transform this into self-government by the Filipinos assisted by Americans."

Other Republican Achievements.

Cuba and the Philippines have received tariff concessions. War taxes have been abolished. The army has been reduced and reorganized. The anthracite coal strike has been settled. The department of commerce and labor established. Trust legislation has been enacted and the Northern Securities company dissolved by virtue of the decree of the highest judicial tribunal in the land, a decree of far-reaching and lasting import. Free rail delivery has been widely extended. A policy of irrigation by which the arid lands of the West are to be reclaimed, has been inaugurated. The Alaska boundary question has been happily and satisfactorily settled. The Clayton-Bulwer treaty has been abrogated and a new treaty negotiated and solemnized under which the interoceanic canal question has been removed from the sphere of diplomacy.

A canal zone has been secured under treaty with Panama through which the canal may be constructed wholly under American auspices and control. The construction of the canal has been provided for. The Monroe doctrine has been sustained and has received new and high recognition. Our rights and interests in the Orient have been guarded and maintained without disturbing our peaceful relations with any of the nations whose interests are involved. Our foreign relations are universally amicable. The diplomacy of our state department has the appreciative recognition of the great governments of the world, and our foreign commerce is greater than that of any single nation in the world. "Our interests are in every street" and on every sea.

with power but once—a brief four years—not because its members are individually bad, but because as an organization it has been wrong on all the great fundamental questions that have been blighted by dissension and discord, and irresolution and incompetency have marked its every act. It has lacked constructive genius and has been strong only in opposition. It has not written a statute, rendered a judicial decision nor solemnized a treaty in fifty years that is alive today. All "are in the church-yard laid." In each successive political drama it has chosen to play the part of the buffoon, or the clown, or at best the comedy man.

Always a New Program.

In each campaign the Republican party submits a record of things done, of laws enacted, of policies established; but with a single exception the Democracy has never been able to submit more than a program. Like the good showman that it is, it presents, however, a new program at each performance and is always willing to change any one it offers to suit the audience.

Once it was permitted to make a record, from '93 to '97, but when it finished there was so much of disaster, of commercial shipwreck, of industrial paralysis, of want, of failure and of despair, and of "perfidy and dishonor," that it refused to stand upon the record made or to submit it to the people for their approval. Instead of its record, it submitted a new program, and in two successive campaigns exhausted itself in a frantic effort to run away from the record made. And now, weary with itself, its failures and its disappointments, it does not file even a program, but comes into court with a confession of error, consents that judgment may go "irrevocably" against it, and in the presence of the jury hugs itself with noisy delight that at last it is "safe and sane."

Offers Nothing to Young Men.

No young man possessed of youth's high impulse, of its love of action and of achievement, of its "fever of reason" and impelling courage, can willingly consent to an alliance with the Democracy.

When we contemplate her as she has been for fifty years, as she is now, and as she will most likely be in the future, he will turn away, resolved to break family traditions and to live in estrangement with father and mother if need be rather than to wed with her. The young men of Indiana will not tarry with her in the cemetery of abandoned principles and dead issues when they can come with us and share in the glory of things accomplished.

Here.

Fair laughs the morn.

And soft the zephyrs blow.

Here is a record of deeds done that uplift and thrill and inspire. Here are memories that stir the blood and kindle ambition's fires. Here is life. Here is action. Here is achievement. Here things are done. Here history is made. Here is hope and faith and consecration. Here, young men of Indiana, are lofty purpose and high enterprise, worthy your prowess and your steel. Here is opportunity. Here is rich reward.

History Makers of the Hour.

Here the living are—the history makers of the hour, in state and nation. Here are Roosevelt, and Hay, and Root, and Taft and Spooner, and Foraker and Cullom, and Cannon. Here are Fairbanks, and Beveridge, and Hemenway, and Watson, and Landis, and Crumpacker, and Overstreet and Brick, and Cromer, and Holliday, and Cheaney, and Gilbert, and Dillon. Here are Durbin, and Storms, and Miller, and Hunt, and Harris, and Griffiths. These did you come, and keep for you a generous welcome.

Here the assembled spirits of the immortals are—those who have fought the fight—who wear the crown; those who fought for freedom on the gory fields of war; those who led the armies of the Union on land and on sea; those who guided the ship of state between rebellion's sands and shoals; those who have led the nation in its upward march; those who have defended its credit, saved its honor and made it great—the world's most imperial state. These, all these, are here.

Here are Lincoln and Ellsworth, and Sumner, and Phillips. Here are Stanton, and Seward, and Stevens, and Yates, and Morton. Here are Hayes, and Arthur, and Harrison and Blaine. Here are Logan, the two Shermans, and Sheridan and Grant. Here are Hanna, and Garfield and McKinley. The Victorious Hosts.

Here are the victorious hosts who marched with Lincoln in '60 and '64; with Grant in '68 and '72; with Hayes in '76; with Garfield in '80; with Harrison in '88, and with McKinley in '96 and 1900.

Here are the marching, virile hosts—homogenous, militant and triumphant, eight millions strong, who are to march with Roosevelt and Fairbanks to victory in November.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 13.—The many conferences here among Republican political leaders caused numberless rumors and increased the general interest in the political situation, but the question of the Republican nomination for the governorship remains unsettled, and until that is agreed upon there can be no decision upon the nominations for lieutenant governor and attorney general by the state convention which meets tomorrow.

One of the most remarkable cases of cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Penner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by A. J. Pellens and W. F. Peter Drug Co.

RESULT IN MAINE

Republicans Victorious by the Usual Large Plurality.

Portland, Me., Sept. 13.—The Republicans carried the state in the biennial election yesterday, the returns indicating a plurality of about 21,000 for William Cobb, the Republican candidate for governor, compared with 83,384 for Hill, the party candidate four years ago. The Democrats have probably made slight gains in both branches of the legislature, but the body will remain strongly Republican and will probably re-elect United States Senator Eugene Hale. The vote was the heaviest cast since 1888. The four present congressmen were also returned.

The party was also successful in many county contests, of which there were more than the usual number. While the various county contests were bitter and hard fought, general interest was fixed on the probable plurality for Mr. Cobb, the Republican candidate, the Democrats aiming to reduce it below the 32,000 of 1900, and the Republicans determined to prevent a falling off. To that end the leaders put forth every effort, especially in the cities and large towns.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlet, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take 'this remedy.' After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." St. Louis, Sept. 13.—The first session of the Interparliamentary union in Festival hall was devoted to speeches of felicitation and greeting by delegates from the fourteen nations represented.
